choices ranging from one-bedroom cabins and suites to four-bedroom cabins. All offer private entrances and wi-fi, and most have their own bathrooms. Several have washers and dryers. The multi-bedroom cabins feature kitchens with ovens, stoves, refrigerators and dishwashers. This is especially appealing to groups who make mealtime part of their entertainment or who want to save on dining expenses.

“Our relaxed atmosphere allows the go-getters to tackle as much as they can handle while those who are more inclined to sleep in, read a book or unwind by the pool can simply enjoy a vicarious thrill when the adventurers share their stories at the end of the day,” said Roger Wilson, CEO of Adventures on the Gorge. “We see a lot of families, including multi-generational groups, as well as school friends and other acquaintances who meet here.”

AOTG is located just outside of Fayetteville, W.Va. near the divided highway U.S. Route 19 and within sight of the famed New River Gorge Bridge. Interstate 77 is 22 miles south, and Interstate 79 is 55 miles north. For many family and friends groups the resort is a convenient meeting point with dining and activity options to satisfy multiple tastes and budgets.

For Wilson a drive must be at least 10 hours long before he even considers flying. “I can get wherever I am going by car just as fast when I add up the time it takes starting from my home to the final destination,” he said. “And I can make the trip on my schedule instead of the airline’s.”
