Adventures on the Gorge Discounts Accommodations 50 Percent for Winter

FAYETTEVILLE, W. Va., Oct. 30, 2020 - Southern West Virginia's Adventures on the Gorge is offering accommodations at 50 percent off - and 40 percent during holidays - this winter.

Located near Fayetteville, W.Va. within an easy drive of many cities in the Midwest, East and South such as Charlotte (four hours), Cincinnati (five hours, 30 minutes) and Washington, D.C. (five hours, 30 minutes), the resort is popular in winter among remote workers, couples seeking a romantic getaway and those simply looking for a change of scenery.

Winter in this part of West Virginia tends to be on the mild side, with temperatures rarely dipping below the 30s and daytime temperatures typically in the 40s and 50s. Sunny days are common throughout the winter.

Adventures on the Gorge overlooks the New River Gorge.

The resort is situated on 250 acres overlooking the New River Gorge National River. The area is renowned for its hiking and rock climbing as well as a variety of seasonal activities such as whitewater rafting from spring through fall. This winter AOTG's TreeTops Canopy Tours will be available to groups of at least four.

"A getaway - and a good deal - is closer than you realize," said Roger Wilson, CEO of the adventure resort. "Bring your laptop; we'll supply the Wi-Fi, television and privacy."

Accommodations are discounted Nov. 1, 2020 through April 30, 2021.
